2. Adopt a Budget Adjustment Resolution appropriating $53,358.28 in revenue and expenditures, for Police Department.

DISCUSSION

The City of Meniffee was allocated $53,358.28 as part of the 2023 BSCC Wellness Grant. The allocation for the grant set forth the following areas of allowable uses:

- Physical Health - fitness programs, purchase of exercise equipment, and nutritional programs
- Mental and/or Emotional Health - peer support programs, a mental health counselor or psychologist, coping skills education, mindfulness training
- Other - financial literacy program, any other program which does not fall under physical health or emotional and/or mental health.

The Meniffee Police Department would allocate the funding towards the department's yearly Pinnacle Training Systems Program. This service is a professional consultant specialized in health and wellness programs for law enforcement agencies across the country. Their programs and services are focused on law enforcement health and training, with a unique approach addressing blood work, flexibility, heart rate, and body mass. The Meniffee Police Department has utilized the services of Pinnacle Training Systems for the past three years.
